Reports to: Systems Engagement & Advocacy, Manager

Position overview

The Systems Engagement & Advocacy Specialist provides training and technical assistance through multiple multi-year grant programs to enhance the connections and partnerships between law enforcement, prosecutors, and the courts with community-based organizations, to promote equitable access and fidelity to lethality assessment tools within marginalized communities through funding by the Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women.

About us

Esperanza United mobilizes Latinas and Latin@ communities to end gender-based violence. Formerly Casa de Esperanza, Esperanza United was founded in 1982 by a small group of persevering Latinas as an emergency shelter in St. Paul, Minnesota. We continue to ground our work in community strengths and wisdom, as we serve Latin@s locally and nationwide.

Core responsibilities

- Assist in analyzing and assessing training and technical assistance needs for communities and institutions
- Design and implement training, tools, and initiatives to improve systems engagement with Latin@ communities and other marginalized communities.
- Implement adult learning theories to effectively engage diverse audiences including judicial officers, law enforcement, prosecutors, domestic violence service providers, and local government.
- Evaluate the effectiveness and impact of training and technical assistance through evaluations, surveys, interviews, and communication.
- Maintain knowledge of the latest information on lethality risk assessment tools, fatality reviews, firearm policies and protocols, and diverse Latin@ communities across the country to ensure excellence in training and technical assistance.
- Maintain and enhance relationships with national partners, funders, consulting TA providers, and community sites nationally.

- Collaborate with Esperanza United’s research, policy, and training and technical assistance teams for the planning, implementation, and evaluation of grant program activities.
- Actively participate in team meetings, workgroups, and organization-wide initiatives, for example, our anti-racism efforts.
- Contribute to a collaborative, positive organizational culture. Embody the values and qualities of Esperanza United in external relationships.
- Co-facilitate meetings, interviews, focus groups, community and systems listening sessions and training workshops.
- Ensure project deadlines are met
- Perform other such duties as assigned within the scope of the position and project description, as well as those reflective of their experience, education, and ability.
