

Bilingual/bicultural clinician listening session

Are you a Latin@ mental health clinician who provides therapy to Latin@ parents and children experiencing domestic violence?

Your insight, experience, and service are important and we want to hear from you.

July 9, 2025

Hampton Inn and Suites
Downtown Denver (Convention Center)
550 15th St, Denver, CO 80202

Travel expenses and per diem will be covered

- Esperanza United and the National Center on Domestic Violence, Trauma and Mental Health are hosting an in-person listening session to learn more about:
- The trauma-informed and culturally responsive approaches offered to Latin@ families through parent-child recovery programs
- The clinical and programmatic supervision offered bilingual, bicultural clinicians serving Latin@ families impacted by domestic violence
- Organizational language plans implemented within medical institutions.

To participate in this listening session, please complete the application and eligibility form.

If you have any questions, please email mtorres@esperanzaunited.org.